

Kirk is an accountant/consultant with A. Grant Mangum & Co., Inc., a practice management, accounting and tax firm providing business services to healthcare professionals since 1966. A native of Rocky Mount, Kirk received both his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Appalachian State University. He has held both board and committee positions with several local organizations. He is an Eagle Scout, has thru-hiked the 2178 mile Appalachian Trail, and is a longstanding member of the National Ski Patrol. Kirk is active in his church and volunteers with many local charity organizations. He lives in Durham with his wife Courtney and their 3 children.